I have devoted over thirty years of my life helping people. This is my passion and calling. I have been privileged to work with members of our Armed Forces and their families during emergencies. I have assisted survivors of natural disaster with their emergency needs. My work with those in need of food, clothing, and financial support through the Round Rock Area Serving Center has prepared me to address social service needs for the whole community. Likewise, my volunteer experience as a victim advocate with the Round Rock Police Department and the truancy diversion program with the Neighborhood Conference Committee, has further exposed me to the needs of our community. I am well prepared to continue to serve my community in ever more challenging positions and I welcome the responsibility and opportunity to contribute.
