Consider two appointments to the Capital Area Council of Governments (CAPCOG) General Assembly.

Based on our population, the City of Round Rock qualifies to have 4 representatives on CAPCOG's General Assembly. The General Assembly is the governing body of the organization for purposes of selecting the Executive Committee, adopting operational plans and budgets, determining membership dues, and guiding the mission.

The current representatives for the City of Round Rock are as follows:

- +Alan McGraw
- +Kris Whitfield
- +Frank Leffingwell
- +Russ Boles

This appointment will replace Alan McGraw and Kris Whitfield on the General Assembly.
